

Work Health and Safety Policy

Safety is a fundamental priority for Kerman, with the care and wellbeing of our people always coming first.

We are committed to achieving the highest standard of performance in work health and safety on all our projects. We build teams of competent, engaged people by instilling safe behaviours in our employees, subcontractors and visitors, and ensure all of our stakeholders understand their obligations in maintaining a safe and healthy workplace.

To fulfil this commitment, we shall:

- Have a clearly outlined framework for setting our WHS objectives.
- Identify and adhere to legislation and industry requirements, throughout our projects.
- Provide safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of work related injury and ill health for all employees and relevant parties.
- Provide and maintain safe systems of work where hazards and associated risks are identified; and either eliminate or control hazards to as low as reasonably practicable.
- Consult with and enable participation of employees and other stakeholders regarding health and safety management.
- Continually improve and develop a robust and adaptable Kerman Work Health and Safety Management Systems.

Mark Nagle
Managing Director